

THE NOYES PRESENTS: MUSEUM OF ART OF STOCKTON UNIVERSITY

JOURNEY: TALI MARGOLIN

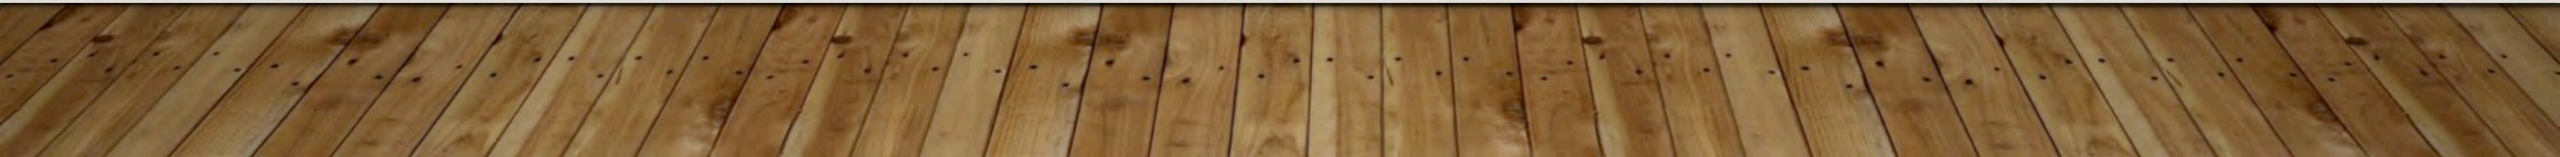

3/12/20 – 9/11/20

STOCKTON'S KRAMER HALL, HAMMONTON, NJ

About the Exhibition:

Tali Margolin is a visual artist working in acrylic, oil and mixed-media.

This exhibition features the Journey series, Margolin's work from her actual journeys of self-discovery. She explores the themes of belonging, separation, the loss of the familiar, adjustment to new conditions, and a physical navigation of territories.

About the Artist:

Tali Margolin's mixed-media work crosses the boundaries between drawing, painting and sculpture. Incorporating uncommon textures and materials, she juxtaposes graceful traces of visually accurate representation with a process of ripping, breaking and constructing.

Margolin holds a BFA from the School of Visual Arts, NY and an MA in Art from Lehman College, NY.
